

With more than 5500 subscribers, over 1200 members and 32 local chapters nationwide, WIPN advances equity and opportunity for women in the retirement industry. WIPN membership includes women at all career levels – from entry level to senior management – who represent all segments of the retirement industry, including recordkeepers, TPAs, DCIOs, insurance, broker-dealers, RIAs, ERISA attorneys, advisors and consultants. Formalized in 2009, the organization is now an established 501(c)6 non-profit.

WIPN – WE Inspire. Promote. Network. – advances equity and opportunity for women in the retirement industry.

WE INSPIRE

each other to achieve our professional goals and personal aspirations through a national network of local chapters.

PROMOTE diversity, equity and inclusion throughout the retirement industry.

NETWORK to share our knowledge and experience, informed by research.

Why Wait?

We invite you to take an active role in the growth of our organization and help shape your future! It's no secret that your next career opportunity is likely to come from someone you know. Join the conversation and become a part of this dynamic network. You'll appreciate the power of these connections when you realize how many more faces you recognize at industry events!

For just $120 to join (or $60 if you are a WIPN sponsor employee), you'll have access to these benefits:

- Local and national networking, personal and professional development programs and webinars.
- WIPN's proprietary research findings (2021-2023) on networking, work-life balance, compensation, DEI, caregiving and career paths for women in the retirement industry.
- WIPN's 32 nationwide chapters to attend in-person events, and a new virtual chapter if you are located out of our geographic footprint for peer-to-peer networking.
- WIPN Connections newsletter to help women advance their careers and showcase member accomplishments.
- Volunteer opportunities (at local chapters or on a WIPN Board committee) to strengthen relationships with other women in the industry and increase your leadership experience.
- Our member directory, so you can connect directly with fellow members.
